KEEN INTEREST SHOWN AT LARGE FARM UNION MEETING

A large crowd of about two hundred farmers of this region were present in the Elks Hall in Drayton Valley for the annual meeting of F.U.A. Sub-District 5 last Thursday evening that featured an address by Paul Babey, President of the Farmers' Union of Alberta.

Mayor Findlay of Drayton Valley welcomed those attending and expressed his surprise at the large crowd and keen interest shown by the members. He expressed the hope that there would be better understanding between the rural and urban communities which certainly need each other.

Mr. Gaston Jouan, Sub-District Director then asked for the approval of the prepared agenda and as it was favored the convention got off to a good start with Mr. Hines of Drayton Valley as co-chairman; Mrs. Winnie Yager, Secretary; Mr. Maurice McCullagh, Resolutions Chairman; Mr. Otto Guze, Registrar; and Mr. E. Williams as Membership Collector.

Interesting reports were given by the locals. Most of them making us of varied speakers. Topics included ARDA, Veterinary, M.S.I., Pensions, Tax Consultants, etc. Some of the projects accomplished were obtaining grain testing machines; remodelling and painting of the meeting premises; floats; special suppers; catering and others.

There were five resolutions all unanimously passed, and a petition protesting the tax on farm fuel was fully endorsed by all at the convention

As of last weekend 25 bulls had been entered with more expected before sale time. Herefords, Angus and Shorthorn breeds are represented among the animals already listed.

No Hope for Highway Work This Year

Honorable Gordon Taylor, Minister of Highways, removed all hope for major work on the Drayton Valley-Lodgepole road in the near future. In a letter dated April 3rd Mr. Taylor, writing to Maurice McCullagh of Rocky Rapids advised, "there is no hope at all at the present time of taking the road from Drayton Valley to Lodgepole into the highway network."

Mr. Taylor went on to say, "with a reduction of ten million dollars in our Highway Appropriation Vote, we will be unable to carry out construction on many miles of roads that are already in the highway network".

The letter from Mr. Taylor was in response to a request from I.D. 77 representatives and the Drayton Valley and District Chamber of Commerce that the road be taken into the highways network as an extension of Highway No. 57.

Keen Interest Shown At Farm Union Meeting

and sent directly to the Alberta Government.

Mr. Gaston Jouan was re-elected sub-director by acclamation. Mr. W. Dusterhoft was elected as alternate; and Mr. Phillips was elected secretary.

Mr. E. Fahrion, District 5 Director gave a very enlightening report, as did Mrs. Maxfield F.W.U.A. Director, who made it very clear that the women play a very important role in the political and economic life of the community.

Feature speaker of the evening was FUA President, Paul Babey who was elated at the amount of keen interest shown and he expressed the hope that it was an indication that farmers are beginning to realize that unless they unite and stand together and demand just rights they will be price-squeezed right out of existence

Farming, he said, is the only industry that sits back and takes whatever is offered for produce and which has absolutely no say in what the products are worth. How stupid and ridiculous, he said, to go on struggling and producing the most valuable commodity (food) at less than the cost of production.

He urged unification and one voice to seek Government Action, set up marketing boards, and strive for bargaining power, and also stressed the great importance of getting all information on the Hog Marketing Board and be prepared to vote on the plebicite which will likely be sent out in June.

A lively question period followed Mr. Babey's speech and then Mr. Gylander spoke on the benefits of Co-op Insurance, and made himself available for all personal questions. The dividend from Co-op Insurance were almost 8% this year.

The ladies of the Drayton Valley Local served a very delicious and bountiful lunch which everyone appreciated.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Seal Campaign Needs Help . . .

If every man, woman and child in the province of Alberta would donate just 12 1/2 cents to the welfare of Alberta's Handicapped and Crippled Children, the Easter Seal campaign would be over the top.

As of Friday, March 29th, only 40% of the objective had been reached, indicating that many hundreds of thousands of people in Alberta have not yet sent in their Easter Seal Pink Envelope and contribution to the campaign.

These handicapped and crippled children are depending on YOU. Their need is great, yet your donation may be small. Is 12 1/2¢ for each member of your family too much to give to such a worthy cause? Few are in need of help more than handicapped and crippled chilren who must go through life in less fortunate circumstances than most of us. If we are truly our brother's keeper then let's all respond in a united and painless way to meet our social responsibilities. A little from so many can mean the difference between help and deprivation.

Check Kites for Possible Hazards . . .

Kite flying, the youthful herald of spring, can be hazardous unless precautions are taken to ensure that kite strings do not contain any metallic material. A metal line coming into contact with an overhead utility power line could result in serious burns or even death to a child.

Mr. W.E. Hawkins, manager of the city electric system, advises that kites with metal frames are also dangerous. If one were to fall across two power lines a short circuit results and the energized overhead utility power line could burn through and fall to the ground.

He suggests that parents test for metal in kite strings by burning a short section of the string to expose any metallic reinforcing material.

British Surgeon Suggests "Spare Parts" Bank

A leading British surgeon has appealed to more than three million motorists to bequeath their bodies for "spare parts" transplant operations. His scheme could save 2,000 lives a year, he says.

Backed by the A.A., the world's largest motoring organization, Professor Michael Woodruff, Department of Surgical Science, Edinburgh University, has asked every member to sign and carry a consent form in his driver's licence.

Automobile Association membership exceeds 3,600,000. This is more than a third of all Britain's private car owners.

The consent form just has to be completed and signed by a driver. It is headed: "Consent to Medical Use of Body in Event of Death."

The influential British Medical Association approves Professor Woodruff's plan, although they say: "Even though a person has bequeathed his body the next of kin's permission is still required." The professor believes his form will reduce the valuable time it takes to contact a relative after death.

Professor Woodruff, who in his appeal quotes the case of a Battle of Britain pilot who has lived to become a grandfather since a kidney transplant, says a quarter of Britain's 8,000 road death victims could be used by surgeons.

They could provide eye cornea, liver and lung transplants, hearts and kidneys, he says. In total about 2,000 lives could be saved in a year.

Public and driver reaction to the plea has been cautious, but the plan is being studied in more detail.

RED CROSS
IS ALWAYS THERE
WITH YOUR HELP

Lenten Meditations

BY REV. ZEKE MARTIN

Unfortunately, because of the time factor, we could not write on the fourth word from the Cross--the word of Loneliness--"My God, my God, why hast Thou forsaken me"; nor could we write on the sixth word--the word of victory--"I have finished the work Thou gave me to do". In this Holy Week issue of our paper we therefore must concentrate on the seventh word which is the word of Trust. "Father into Thy hands I commend my Spir- Spirit".

The first word from the cross, "Father forgive them" breathed the calm of an unbroken communion between the Father and the Son which made the sufferings of the wounded body of Jesus an Act of intercession for the transgressors. And now this last word, "Father.....I commend my Spirit" expresses the surrender of a loyal Spirit into the hands of its faithful guardian. The peace of a perfect love and the peace of a finished work blend in the peace of a perfect trust. A very obvious thought comes out of this last word and it is this; Jesus came forth from God and now he is going back to Him. Indeed that is the explanation of his whole career as it is the interpretation alike of his ministry and his life. There is no sadness of farewell in the last word.

Here before the end of his life on earth the Son turns to the Father. He had begun with the appeal to the Father and now he closes his life with His Father in mind. One cannot read in the gospels the story of His life without realizing that the word 'Father' was often on his lips. It was the word 'Father' which summed up the whole purpose of his life. Through the darkness Jesus was bearing the curse of sin as he had borne it at no other time, and now having made atonement (at-one-ment), having taken the curse of sin away, having opened up a new way by which man might approach and come to God, it is not "my God", but "my Father". You and I can never know the depth of love in this word Father as applied to God until we partake in the atonement which Christ has made.

And yet the word "Father" does sum up the whole purpose of our Lord's life. We remember that constantly he was saying, "I go to my Father" and now the time is at hand when He is going to the Father. If Christian people would keep this thought in mind--that we go to the Father when our life's work is ended here--then many of life's mysteries and uncertainties would be unravelled for us. There are such numbers of problems and pressures people have to face today--and sometimes through no fault of theirs--so much pain and suffering, that to the human it becomes frustrating and mystifying, and yet, there was no mystery in pain and suffering to our Lord, as He shared it, for to Him, there was this great fact of Fatherhood to whom He could appeal. He could appeal to God as his Father and therefore He understood. We too, should realize that the crosses, crises, trials, cares, vexations and tribulations of our daily lives are part of the discipline of our journey and that the end of all things is the Father.

Ladies End Curling Season

Action in the ladies section of the local curling club came to a close for the season on Tuesday, April 2nd as the last rock was thrown in club competition.

In the spotlight that evening was a game between the Jenkins and Waugh rinks in which the Jenkins rink came out on top. This game was to decide the winner of the Local Aggregate, an award sponsored annually by Panky's Enterprises. The teams had ended in a tie after play in the Ladies Open Bonspiel last month.

Also sharing the spotlight that evening was a sudden death game between the Samis rink, winner of A section and the Mohn rink, winner of B section for the Sunset Hardware Trophy. Libby Mohn's rink was the winner. This trophy, emblematic of club championship, is sponsored each year by Sunset Hardware.

With the increase in the number of club rinks over the past two years it has become evident that another trophy will have to be put up for competition. The club, however, is still seeking a sponsor.

The final games in the closed club bonspiel were also played that evening. Winner of the First Event was the Strach rink with the Leake rink in second place. In the Second Event it was the Burrows rink in first place and the Wilkes rink second.

A social evening was enjoyed by the ladies and was followed by some delicious fried chicken from the curling club's kitchen.

There are some people you have to know before you can' dislike them.

Attend District Meeting

Legislature Report

By Tony Cox

Delegations, briefs and lobbying of MLA's by farm organizations protesting the proposed three cent a gallon gasoline tax increase is all for nothing. The Government has studied the implications of the boost and has no intention of rescinding the move. Both Premier Manning and the Treasurer, Mr. Aalborg have both indicated the new tax is here to stay although the 12 cent a gallon exemption remains in effect.

The entire program of government grants to municipalities for road construction, when reviewed in two years, will consider rapid transit. Highways Minister Gordon Taylor told the Legislature the entire matter will be subject to revision when the present five-year plan expires in 1971. Any new program would take cognizance of all modes of transportation, including rapid transportation, he said.

Legislation allowing right turns on red lights will not be changed at least until there is evidence it results in accidents.

A 100-bed active treatment hospital will be built in St. Albert this year. The hospital is one of several projects totalling almost $5,000,000 approved for 1968. Others are a 50-bed hospital at Stettler, a 225-bed nursing home in Calgary and other nursing homes in Calgary, Wetaskiwin and Lacombe.

In addition, Health Minister Dr. J. D. Ross has promised 325 to 350 more beds at Alberta Hospital, Edmonton within the next 18 months.

Dr. Ross also told the Legislature last week that the providing of municipal ambulance services should be the responsibility of municipalities and not that of the government. He suggested that smaller communities possessing hospitals or health clinics without ambulance services should establish a voluntary group of station-wagon owners who could provide emergency transportation when the need arose.

Legislation to give Indians a voice in the administration of school boards, although outlined in the Speech from the Throne, will not be introduced this session. Education Minister Raymond Reierson wants to discuss the problem with the Indians themselves before presenting any legislation to the House.

But the structure of the Northland School Division will be changed, increasing the number of board members from 5 to 7. One likely new member will be a treaty Indian and the other, a Metis. Mr. Reierson said this will give the Indian people a better understanding of educational administrative problems.

Third reading and royal assent to a revised School Act has increased the seven percent ceiling on school board borrowings from the Alberta Municipal Financing Corporation. The new provisions would allow the provincial cabinet to set the ceiling, likely eight percent, to allow flexibility during a time of fluctuating interest rates, said Mr. Reierson. The new bill also allows instruction in French for 50 percent of the school day.

The future role of MSI and Blue Cross, in connection with the Alberta Health Plan, has been clarified. MSI and Blue Cross will carry the non-subsidized contracts, including basic physician services and the full range of options offered under the AHP. The government agency will generally concern itself with the carrying of contracts subsidized from public funds.

Telephones Minister A.O. Aalborg says Alberta Government Telephones is considering the use of the number, 911, for all emergencies since the announcement by American Telephone and Telegraph to this effect. While it is physically possible to provide the use of this number, AGT itself has no control over emergency services. Any such scheme would have to be worked out with municipal authorities who provide the emergency services before any plan could be initiated, said Mr. Aalborg.

A quota system for deciduous timber may be implemented allowing the government to handle any demand for this variety of timber. Another amendment to the Forests Act, permits the minister of Lands and Forests to determine any compensation if the Crown removes any timber for such reasons as construction of a highway, a recreational development, an area to be flooded by a dam, etc.

The fire season has been shortened by one month upon ratification of the Act. November has been excluded from the fire season to encourage the burning of debris without the necessity of obtaining a permit except when conditions are extremely dry.

Arctic char from an icy northern lake.

"Adventure High Arctic" to Be Shown Here April 18th

Residents of Drayton Valley area will have the opportunity shortly of seeing one of the most unusual and complete films ever produced on the Canadian Arctic and high arctic regions. This color motion picture entitled "Adventure High Arctic" was filmed by well known naturalist photographer Edgar T. Jones and required five years to complete, taking him into the islands of the Arctic archipelago and the eastern arctic.

Adventure High Arctic moves north from Edmonton through Wood Buffalo Park, on to Yellowknife on the north arm of mighty Great Slave Lake where we also have a chance to go out Trout and Pike fishing. From Yellowknife we travel northward toward the arctic circle, through the Contwoyto Lake area, crossing the arctic circle and the herds of Caribou moving in the Bathurst Inlet area toward their spring 'calving grounds'.

Colorful Ptarmigan dot the barrens and we move on to Cambridge Bay on Victoria Island, with it's Eskimo population and colorful wildlife. In this land of no trees, the flowers and birdlife in the arctic spring must be seen to be believed and all will come to life in Adventure High Arctic. The Lemming, the Arctic Fox and weasel, tundra shorebirds, Jaegers, hawks and owls all play a role on the colorful tundra. You will camp and canoe in the wilderness and travel through the eyes of a naturalist.

During the second section of Adventure High Arctic you will travel east by film into the Spence Bay area on the Boothia Peninsula, where unfolds an exciting adventure by plane, resulting in an 80 mile trip by dog team with the Eskimos, a seal hunt and eider hunt with the Eskimos of this remote area. You will also move into the eastern Arctic seeing the spectacular Polar Bear and Walrus of this area.

To finish your journey to the high arctic, the world's most fabulous fresh water fishing... arctic char caught in the fast waters ofthe rivers of the arctic islands...a brilliantly colored fish, second to none for sport and for eating. You will see how a northern fishing camp set up for sportsmen operates and end your trip in this fascinating region.

Your photographer Ed Jones is a former bush pilot with almost 5,000 flying hours, who has seen much of Canada's northland and has studied the wildlife of the region for many years. He is well qualified to give a thorough and complete story of life in the high arctic.

Adventure High Arctic will be shown at St. Anthony's School Gym on Thursday, April 18th at 8:00 p.m. under the sponsorship of the Drayton Valley Rotary Club.

Community Honors Tomahawk Team

The Tomahawk Hall was the scene of a lovely banquet on April 5th in honor of the Tomahawk Totem Bantam hockey team. The hall was decorated in white and green, the Tomahawk hockey colors.

At the head table were the hockey team: David Lukaniuk Gordie Reich, Carmen Solomon, Daryl Reich. Elmer Zander Gary Reich, Earl Nixon, Lance Towers, Walter Case, Pat McKay, Glen Shaw, Randy England, Dale Schadeck, Ronnie Reich, Chris Burke, George Cherrington, Eli Androschuk and Mike Hadzariga (goalie) and Carmen Reich who took Kevin Reich's place as he was in the hospital. The coaches Ted Duckett and Theo Reich and the master of ceremonies, Albert Martin.

After a delicious meal the Reeve of the Municipality, Rudolph Zander, paid a tribute to the hockey team. Mayor Findlay of Drayton Valley substituted for Mike Gormley who was sick in bed. He gave a wonderful speech on sportsmanship.

Then Les Miller gave a little talk on the recreation committee of which he is the chairman.

Our next speaker was Lyle McNickel from the department of youth who gave the boys some very encouraging words.

Theo Reich gave the statistics on each player and on the team as a whole. The Totems played 32 games, won 24, tied tied 5 and lost 3. They scored 161 goals and had 75 goals scored against them. Our goalie Mike Hadzariga had a 2/41 average which is pretty good for a little 12-year-old goalie. As Theo Reich gave each boys record, Pete Solomon presented the boys with their hockey jackets in green with white trim and their name on one sleeve and their position on the other sleeve. Ted Duckett thanked the boys and parents for their cooperation.

To eulogize the team Mrs. Ellen Shaw wrote a poem which she read at the supper.

Lariat Club Holds Meeting

Cliff Whitelock, President of the Lariat Gymkhana club recently showed his horse, Count Kilobar to receive a second place ribbon in the three-year-old stallion class at the Edmonton Quarter Horse Show. This placing earned him the right to show later in the grand champion class.

The film shown on April 5th was fairly successful with about 40 people present. "Quarter Horses in Action" was a very informative film and contained several helpful hints. The Appaloosa film featured the fifth international show in Lethbridge as well as some appaloosa horses in Ontario.

A Hard Times Dance is scheduled for April 19th at the Elks Hall. Reg Ross' Orchestra will be playing and everyone is urged to dress up as there will be prizes for the best costumes. Tickets may be obtained from any member.

Mrs. Anna Otto was a recent visitor at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Locker. During her visit, Mrs. Otto celebrated her 87th birthday. She is a resident of the Meridian home at Stony Plain.

The regular monthly meeting of the United Church Women's group was held at the home of Mrs. Gail Witty on April 3rd. President Mrs. Betty Bjornstad opened the meeting with the Lord's Prayer. Following this was a scripture reading, by the hostess, Mrs. Witty. The main business of the evening consisted of discussion on the forthcoming smorgasborg supper to be held at the Legion Hall on April 25th. The time is from 5:30 to 7:30. A few more items of business were discussed and the meeting adjourned. Lunch was served by the co-hostesses, Mrs. Leslie Pugh and Mrs. Marc Peterson. The next meeting will be held at the H.A. Square Draw Winners

In the recently completed local Men's Square Curling draw the Bill Fiveland rink from Cynthia, captured the engraved pewter mug trophies for "A" section without a loss. Despite some close games, Bill and his rink displayed some fine shotmaking along the way to keep their unblemished record intact. Winners in the "B" Section were the Milt McMahon rink (not pictured) with Grant Shearer playing third, Bill Wilks second and Rene Coutu lead. "C" section was won by the Dave Magus foursome with Jim Samborsky rink winning "D" section.

The curling season is fast coming to a close with the sweater elimination round, and the club championship still up for grabs. It is hoped that the season will close out around the middle of April with tentative plans to hold the Annual General Meeting about April 17th.

Good Friday Procession

By REV. ZEKE MARTIN

On Good Friday, April 12th at 9:45 a.m. the Youth Group of Drayton Valley United Church will be walking through the town bearing a cross. The purpose of this walk is not for show--God forbid--but to project the meaning of the cross into the life of our community with its moral and spiritual significance. Written into the structure of the world there is what one may call the "Principle of Tragedy", a power working in men and nature, which can break a man's life, defeat him, make a tragedy of him. Let's call it sin in human nature for that's what it is, and cruelty in physical nature. This principle of tragedy is seen in and illustrated by the fact that every normal life sooner or later has crosses to bear, sometimes and frequently in the form of permanent handicaps, unearned suffering, burdens that often appear grossly unfair.

There are crosses that come to a man because of his own limitations in life--unnecessary crosses--inherited tendencies that do much to cause poor management; poor judgement in assuming foolish risks; poor moral insight in violating the best conscience of society forgetting that we always reap more than we sow. Then there are crosses that come to us because we live in an imperfect world. They are the outcome of human friction and the presence of evil in life. These may be called man's inevitable crosses.

The third kind of cross may be called life's voluntary crosses which suggest: "Bear one anothers burdens", "We who are strong ought to bear the burdens of the weak" or, "as you did it unto the least of these my brethern, you did it unto me". In this kind of a world a man with no crosses misses life altogether.

We can resist life's crosses ignore them, or as Jesus did we can use our crosses as keys to the larger, more abundant life. Our purpose then in our walk is to enter into the fellowship of suffering of all men everywhere whatever the cause whatever the purpose of that suffering. We do know God's fellowship is in tragedy, his triumphant life through Christ can overcome tragedy, his forgiveness can heal broken suffering lives and his power can carry on in a good life beyond tragedy.

All people who so desire, of whatever Church are welcome to join in this procession. The walk begins at 9:45 a.m. from the United Church and returns to the church at 10:45 approximately.

May the love of the Suffering Servant, Jesus Christ, be yours this Holy Week and always.

Careless Handling Makes Big Losses for Producers

Did you know that the careless handling of livestock destroys enough meat to supply the daily needs of about 50,000 Canadians? Imagine what this means in terms of dollars lost to the producer.

Although it is true that losses from bruising, crippling and livestock deaths fall on all segments of the industry, it is undoubtedly the producer who pays the largest part of the total loss. The price the producer receives for his animals is governed by the price the meat packer can get for the meat and by-products. Apart from the fact that it takes extra labor to trim out bruised meat, that which is left is worth considerably less. Nobody wants to buy a ham which has a big hole where the bruised meat was removed.

A survey conducted by the Livestock Conservation Inc., a research and educational organization with headquarters in Chicago, showed that 62 per cent of hog bruises are caused by canes, whips, clubs, kicking and proding, while 38 per cent resulted from fork and nail punctures and other causes. Sixty-six per cent of cattle bruises are caused by crowding, bumping and rushing. The other 34 per cent result from trampling, horns, whips, clubs and other causes. Rough handling, lifting by the wool, inadequate loading and unloading facilities, and inadequate bedding account for 60 per cent of the bruises received by sheep and lambs. Crowding and trampling, when sheep are not segregated from other livestock, are responsible for 40 per cent of the bruises.

Additional information on losses sustained from livestock injuries and recommended methods for avoiding these injuries are contained in the bulletin "Easy Does It", available from district agriculturists and the Publications Branch of the Alberta Department of Agriculture, Edmonton.

Oilmen Take Part in 'Spiel

Six rinks from Drayton Valley took part in the Oilmen's Bonspiel held in Edmonton last week.

Some of the big guns were ousted early from the 16th annual event--one of them at the hands of a Drayton Valley entry.

Mel Palm, last year's winner, after beating Matt Baldwin was toppled by the John Wronko rink of Drayton Valley going into the eights. Wronko in turn was upset by the Maurice Partridge rink of Edmonton.

Other members of the Wronko rink were Dennis Manning, Fred Holan and Bill Tkachuk.

LOOKING FORWARD TO LUNCH

Packing lunches isn't normally a task mothers relish. Eating packed lunches isn't always a treat either. Looking forward to lunch?....not likely.

With three months of the school year remaining, here's good news. A new publication is available from this office, hot off the press. What's it all about? Lunches... and it's called "Looking Forward to Lunch".

It contains a host of new ideas and is chuck full of information--what is a good lunch, how to plan a menu for a packed lunch, what each member of a family needs and likes in lunch--from school child to teen to career girl to the working spouse.

Teens seem to be particularly hard to enthuse when it comes to packed lunches. All too many lunch at the local pop shop or bakery, yet complain about complexion problems. If this is so, pastry, candy, chocolate, nuts and highly spiced foods should be ruled out for a while.

There is always some food fad that is popular, why not include it when you pack a lunch? Substitute potato chips and cheese chunks for a cheese sandwich. If pizza is this week's passion, combine minced luncheon meat with green pepper and tomato ketchup, put it in a roll and presto--"Pizzabun".

This is only a wee sample of the ideas within the covers of our new pamphlet. There are sandwich ideas galore, variety suggestions, tips for packing and preparation.

One of the suggestions is to put your freezer to work. Frozen sliced bread is handy, for instance, because the filling goes on easily. By lunch time the bread is thawed, but the sandwich is still cool.

Or you can make a quantity of different sandwiches at the beginning of the week, then wrap, label and freeze. Most fillings freeze well.

Time for a transfusion, mothers? A phone call to my office or a note in the mail, will have a copy of "Looking Forward to Lunch" in your home within the week--at no charge.

ENTWISTLE NEWS

MRS. E. OLIVER,
Correspondent.

Mrs. Mina Messenger was visiting relatives in Calgary recently. While there she went to Banff also. This is the first time that she has ever been to Calgary and Banff.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Sumner spent a few days in Entwistle recently visiting Glennis and Ralph Ostertag and of course the granddaughter Wendy. They also visited their other friends as well.

Mrs. Art Miller and Todd are here with Art now, as they plan on making their home here once again. We are all glad to see them back amongst us again.

Mrs. Edna Bullock won the food hamper that was raffled by the Entwistle Fire Department. The proceeds are to go to the Entwistle Community Library. Many thanks to the Department for their fine gesture and the Library Board will put it to good use.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hamar enjoyed the last weekend with the presence of all their family. Mr. and Mrs. Duane Quantz and girls of Innisfail, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Richardson and Helen Hamar of Edmonton and Ron Hamar who is attending the Olds School of Agriculture.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Brown have returned from their trip to Europe.

Come and see the Easter Story presented by the Happy Hour Bible Club on April 14th, Easter Sunday in the Entwistle Community Church at 10:00 a.m. The Easter Church Service will follow at 11:00 a.m.

On Monday, April 15th, the Drayton Valley Community Choir will present an Easter Cantata in the Community Church at 8:30 p.m. Everyone is welcome and lunch will be served at the end of the service.

Several teams curled in the bonspiel held at Seba Beach on the weekend. It was a very enjoyable 'spiel as the weather was not too severe and the ice was excellent. A lovely banquet was served to all and a good time was had.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Anderson on the weekend were Mrs. Nellie Kofick, Miss Ruby Kofick, Mr. Russel Kofick, Mr. and Mrs. Art Kofick and Mrs. Lucy Babiak all of Wabamun.

A surprise party was held at our regular lodge meeting for our life members, Mrs. Mina Messenger who celebrates her 80th birthday on April 6th. A birthday cake and a gift was presented to her by H.R. Lady E. Reid and Happy Birthday was sung. The Lodge members enjoyed the cake which was cut and distributed and Mrs. Messenger thanked all very kindly for the wonderful surprise.

Teen Meeting Sat., April 13

Hey Teens, do you have ideas of your own about being a conformist? Does it pay to conform? Does it pay not to? Why not trade ideas--and discuss them frankly at Teens For Christ on Saturday night?

Pastor E. Cearfoss, of the Calvary Baptist Church, is a man who is aware of the problems of the modern teenager. He has worked successfully with young people. Pastor Cearfoss is concerned about the youth of Drayton Valley. He will speak briefly on the subject and then open the rally for discussion. A panel of clergymen will be there. You may direct your questions to any of them.

Plan to be at the Drayton Valley Elementary School at 8 p.m. on Saturday, April 13th.

Library News

The library will be closed on Good Friday. Borrowers are reminded that books may be dropped in the chute at any time

Thanks to Larry Beckett who donated "Racing and Sports Car Chassis Design" and "Handgunner's Guide" both of which will be of interest to some of our juvenile readers.

At last we have been able to obtain a copy of Truman Capote's "Other Voices, Other Rooms".

It has long been our contention that authors should pay close attention to the titles they choose for their books. Doesn't the title, "Stories that Scared Even Me" seem sure to appeal to all readers of mystery stories? Since we are still having callers who say, "I didn't know there was a public library in town" perhaps the following information should be repeated once more.

The Drayton Valley Municipal Library is situated in the Town Hall. Enter by the east door. The library is on your left. Library hours are: Tuesday and Friday from 3 to 5 and from 7 to 9 p.m. with noon hours on both days for bus children only. Fees are: Adults $1.00 for twelve months. Children 50¢ for twelve months.
